

THE PEAK RIDGE CORRIDOR: PROTECTING THE LEOPARDS OF SRI LANKA'S HIGHLANDS

Conservationists and local wildlife authorities have stepped up efforts to reduce threats face by both animals and habitats in the highlands. The 18-kilometre mountain ridge between Castlereagh and Moussakelle reservoirs named the 'Peak Ridge Forest Corridor' is a collaborative initiative to support conservation efforts in the highlands adjacent to the Peak Wilderness Sanctuary.

Read article on Click to read