

The unique Dumbara Ratā Kalāla (Dumbara Weaving) Sri Lanka's traditional craftsmanship has gained the UNESCO World Cultural Heritage recognition

Dumbara is a town located in the Ratnapura District, Sri Lanka and the traditional weaving is famous for its conventional designs and its artistic representation. They have a long history of weaving to the Kandyan Kings and aristocrats way back in the ancient times.

Read the full article from the link Click to read

