

Unveiling Sri Lanka's potential for future mining! Graphite, vein quartz, mineral sands and apatite are showing a tendency to excel in the export market due to the quality in the raw material for high-end products.

New investments in these selected minerals will earmark the Sri Lankan mineral industry in the world map.

